At IDEXX, we understand the importance of continuing to grow and learn in your profession. You will have the opportunity to maintain and develop your diagnostic skills through regular continuing education, and will collaborate with your colleagues frequently through consultation and regular rounds sessions.

What do you need to be successful in this role:

- Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM), or equivalent degree required
- Pathology Board Certified or Eligible - ACVP or ECVP preferred
- Fluency in French and English
- Familiarity with current topics and issues in clinical veterinary medicine
- Ability to type and use dictation equipment
- Excellent verbal and communication skills
- A service-oriented attitude
- Ability to organize and prioritize work
- Computer skills are required

What We Offer:

When you join IDEXX, you will find yourself in a challenging and exciting environment where you are given the opportunity to be yourself, innovate, and grow. We have so much to offer!

- From day one, you will get full autonomy in your work and ample support when you need it.
- You will join a successful team who is proud of the work they do and motivated by their unified purpose of helping others.
- You will work with people who are inspiring, open, and the best in their operating space.
- We believe in you – with a team of over 9,000 all over the globe, there are lots of opportunities for learning, personal growth, and career expansion.
- You'll be part of a double-digit growth company in a quickly growing market and we are leading the way forward with innovative products, services, and a strong focus on our customers.

Our Mission

We're proud of the work we do, because our work matters. An innovation leader in every industry we serve, we follow our Purpose and Guiding Principles to help pet owners worldwide keep their companion animals healthy and happy, to ensure safe drinking water for billions, and to help farmers protect livestock and poultry from disease. We have customers in over 175 countries and a global workforce of over 9,000 talented people.
